

Dear Community Member,

The past few years have been hard on collegiate ballroom dancers: masked, socially distanced, and often, just straight up canceled. That is why in 2023, we started Carnegie Classic, an all levels and all ages dance competition in Pittsburgh PA, hosted by CMU Ballroom. For 2024, we're coming back big! Carnegie Mellon's Ballroom Dance Club is hosting Carnegie Classic on February 9th-11th.

For many of us, ballroom dance has defined our college experience. It has given all of us friendship, exercise, and a world of fun. In order to facilitate an amazing experience, we are asking for sponsorships and donations to help cover costs. Here are some of the things you or your organization's money would go towards.

- Scholarships for winners of various divisions of the competition
- Refreshments for volunteers
- Awards for finalists
- Rental of equipment
- Paying and housing officials from out of town
- Ambience
- And much more!

We have suggested donation levels below!

Bronze Level ~ $150

- Mention in the competition program
- One free admission to the Friday evening dance, the Starlit Soiree

Silver Level ~ $275

- Mention in the program
- Have prizes named after you or an organization of your choice
- Two free admissions to the Friday evening dance, the Starlit Soiree
- Option to directly give out awards to finalists

Gold Level ~ $500

- Mention in the program
- Have prizes named after you or an organization of your choice

- Personal thanks from the MC
- Option to directly give out awards to finalists
